

GROUPE FLO SUCCESSFULLY LAUNCHES THIRD BRANCH OF CAFÉ FLO IN SANLITUN

Press Release

Sanlitun boasts a captivating fashionable draw and youthful dynamism in the capital city of Beijing. The modern Tai Koo Li complex welcomes the third branch of Café FLO in its south wing. Guests can now enjoy authentic French dining experiences in a relaxed environment, coupled with retro Parisian styled interiors and soothing fresh flowers and greenery.

Following two months of a successful soft opening period, Café FLO Tai Koo Li officially opened on 27 September 2016. The grand event was graced by Mr. Philippe Guelluy, Ambassador to the French embassy, the management of Sanlitun Tai Koo Li and Groupe FLO, valued media friends and business partners.

Guests enjoyed a treat for their senses with soothing 'live' French music, dazzling and exquisite desserts by award-winning pastry extraordinaire Franck Michel, as well as creative signature canapés and beverages.

The new Café FLO is inspired by elegant floral shops lining the Parisian streets, with Tiffany shade of blue as its main colour for the interior. The graceful look is further enhanced by comfortable dim lights and its high ceiling, akin to a gothic cathedral. The restaurant will play soulful jazz tunes and offer a captivating view of the Sanlitun lights by the window, or the seductive nature and concrete jungle in the outdoor terrace.

The menu offers a wide variety of fine French classic signatures including fresh oysters, escargots, baguettes, and world class desserts. Do not miss freshly made frozen yoghurt, available exclusively in Café FLO Tai Koo Li. Big on both nutrition count and taste, the refreshing healthy treat can be paired with different dried fruits and nuts toppings.

All Café FLO branches now offer a brand new menu with more exciting dining options. Be spoiled for choice with new exquisite fresh seafood platters, charcuterie plates and cold pressed juices. Guests can look forward to special weekly creations, using carefully selected fresh and seasonal ingredients. The dinner menu also includes wine pairing recommendations for an even greater dining pleasure. Café FLO Tai Koo Li will be the ideal venue for any gathering in the bustling neighbourhood.
